

Cheltenham Horticultural Society

Invite you to join them for an evening meeting with special guest speaker Timothy Walker.

“Bordering on Insanity”

Thursday 12th June

Doors open 7pm for a 7:30pm start

Members free, Non-members £3.

Plant sales plus free tea, coffee and biscuits

Shurdington Community Centre,
Bishops Road, Shurdington GL51 4TB

“Exciting, exemplary, entertaining, energetic, erudite, excellent – just a few words to describe the wonderful talk that you gave to the club last night! It really was a first-class talk which we all enjoyed so much. Full of knowledge, humour and fab photos too! Definitely one of the best talks we’ve had”. Booking secretary Cambridgeshire after hearing ‘Bordering on Insanity’

An Oxford botany graduate followed by a career which spanned the Saville Garden in Windsor, the Royal Botanic Gardens Kew and 18 years at the University of Oxford Botanic Garden & Harcourt Arboretum, culminating in being its Director.